

rmLibrary Now Available to ALL Advisen.com Clients

Ever scramble for info about mold, fleet safety, ergonomics, patient safety, claims or any other of the thousands of topics that insurance professionals deal with daily? If you need to create a procedure, checklist or other document and wish you had a starting point, you'll appreciate the newest addition of rmLibrary, now licensed for all Advisen.com clients. rmLibrary consists of 25,000 resources which have been described, categorized, and tagged for insurance and risk management purposes.

ACCESS rmLIBRARY ON ADVISEN.COM

Access rmLibrary via the Topical Analysis dropdown menu and select Risk Management Library. rmLibrary is licensed from Libraries and Directories (LAD) to expand the range of topics and information available through Advisen for casualty, property, and safety-related resources. rmLibrary searches the internet and then collects and organizes the content for you.

EXAMPLE SCENARIOS

A Risk Manager needs to craft a procedure for safety inspections in a newly-acquired facility.

A Broker needs to respond to a question about asbestos in the workplace.

An Underwriter wants to research the issues surrounding a newly-emerging risk, such as cyber.

A Safety professional needs to create and develop a disaster recovery plan or emergency procedure.

An Employer needs to review the risks of cell phone usage while driving for business.

A Lawyer or Consultant needs to advise a client about various arbitration and alternative dispute resolutions.

rmLibrary provides Advisen clients with a broad range of content and information, in 30 main categories (such as Safety, Managed Care, Ergonomics, Workers Comp, Federal and State regulations, International Countries, etc) and over 900 sub categories.. These resources have been prescreened, categorized, and tagged for insurance and Risk Management relevance. New links are added daily, and existing links are frequently checked for continued availability. The rmLibrary is integrated into the familiar Advisen interface for browsing and searching - flexible browsing paths include by section, professional category, topical category, and type of resource, or you can search the library directly using keywords you provide, such as avian flu, fraud, tanks, or any other term.

DISCOUNTS ON OTHER LAD LIBRARIES

Advisen Clients also qualify for discounts on additional LAD products, such as The Safety Library, The HR Library, The Business Library, and Laws & Regs. Visit the Advisen CornerStore at <http://corner.advisen.com> and select Partners to see other RM Library offerings. Use the Registration Code of ADVISEN when subscribing to receive the discounted rate. LAD also has directories that accompany its Libraries. Basic listings in either the company or professional directories are FREE. The ADVISEN discount applies to enhancements.
