

Increase Your Advisen Knowhow Post Renewals

With your Jan 1 renewals behind you, use this time to see how Advisen can help you best prep for your next renewal round. For P&C producers, account execs and underwriters, Advisen helps you drive your book. New for 2010, Advisen offers both more training and more "Do It For You" services.

For your colleagues who want to become more fluent in our data & toolsets, we offer now more regular training sessions. There is no charge for these sessions. But for those who you believe will never be inclined to learn more about our navigation, we offer a variety of ways to simply push relevant details about their insureds or for example, send them a completed Benchmark study or form comparison. For more details about either program, contact us at support@advisen.com

WANT A STEWARDSHIP REPORT EXAMPLE?

Advisen.com's tools and services enable you to assemble meaningful Stewardship Reports. Or you can have our Consulting Team build one for you. Odds are that we write more Stewardship Reports than you; we're very good at it. Stewardship Reports take hours to research, assemble and analyze. That's the main obstacle to generating them. Advisen's Consulting Team expeditiously takes on that burden to assist you in securing and retaining that big important client. Contact Advisen's Chief Stewardship Architect Mike Lichman at mlichman@advisen.com or view the Stewardship samples, calculator or webinar posted on the Advisen Corner Store at http://corner.advisen.com/reports_stewardship_homepage.html

SECURITES LITIGATION

Also, our next quarterly Securities Litigation review is Friday, January 22 at 11am EST. Here is the registration link:
